Rick Crow named Rookie of the Year

Canyon Country resident Rick Crow was named the Street Stock Division Rookie of the Year at the Saugus Speedway banquet last weekend.

Crow broke a three-year old track record with a time of 18.54 seconds, bettering John Cran's 1987 mark of 18.62. Crow finished eighth in driving points, placed seventh in car owner points, recorded 10 fast times out of 16, won three main events, placed second in the final open comp and had 10 top five finishes and two trophy dash wins.
